Who Will Win The 2010 Independent Handbag Designer Award?

Hand-made works of art from all over the world are competing for the prize!

-PJ Gach

Robert Verdi hosted the 2010 Independent Handbag Designer Awards press party on a very soggy night in Manhattan. Crystallized™ Swarovski Elements sponsored the event and held the party in their sparkly, air shop in Soho. The bad weather didn't deter purse aficionados, who packed the venue oohing and ahing over the 34 finalists designs that came from all over the world.
